AARON REIMER

GENEALOGY

A geneology is a history of an ancestor and his descendents.

In order to trace back any descendent in this geneology to the selected ancestor, AARON REIMER, who is marked in Roman numeral one - I, a system of numbering has been adopted. e.g. I-5 means the fifth child of the first ancestor, who is Maria, Mrs. Peter Dyck, later Mrs. Abr. Reimer. I-6-2 means second child of the sixth child of the first ancestor, who is Elizabeth Schmidt, or Mrs. John A. Unruh. I-10-1-2-1 means the first child of the second child of the first child of the tenth child of the ancestor, who would be Doris Buller, daughter of Mathilda Frey Buller, a grandchild of Mrs. Aganetha Frey Klassen and a great-grandchild of Johann W. Reimer. If there are three numbers, that person is in the 3rd generation or four numbers is for 4th generation.

HISTORICAL SKETCH

In the year 1876 a group of Mennonites migrated to America primarily to avoid military conscription. Our Grandmother Reimer (Anna Warkentin) migrated with this group. Grandfather Aaron Reimer died two years previous to this migration. In 1874 Grandmother came from the Furstenwerder Molatchna colony, South Russia. She brought with her the three youngest sons, John W., Abraham W., and Simon W., and three of her married daughters with their families, Peter Dyck (Maria), Jacob P. Schmidt (Elizabeth), and Johann Loewen (Katherina). The other three children with their families, Aaron Reimer, Martin Janzen (Anna), Abraham Conrad (Margaretha), stayed in Russia. Martin Janzen later moved to Asia.

Grandmother Aaron Reimer settled in the eastern part of McPherson County, Kansas, in Section 36-20-1w, three miles west and three-fourths mile north of the Alexanderwohl Church. Grandmother had the privilege of having her children live within a radius of five miles of the parental home, with the youngest son, Simon, living with her on the home place.

The John W. Reimer Family.--Since I will not be able to give any information in regard to the other families, I will narrate a few facts about the John W. Reimer family. Our parents were married on February 19, 1880, our mother having come to America in the year 1879 from Blumenart, South Russia. Previous our father had attended the English district school. Our parents settled on a farm one mile west of the home place. Father farmed and also taught various schools, among them being the Greenfeld, Emmenthal and Steinbach schools. Since he was of poor health, he had to give up teaching which was a great sacrifice for him because of his keen interest in teaching.

Our home was a blessed one. Our father and mother were very strict and sought to raise their children in the fear of the Lord. Father taught Sunday school classes on Sunday afternoon in the home district school. Young people often gathered in the home for song practice. I was about eleven years of age when father died, but the impressions left in those early years will always stay with me.

Our father died in 1898. In October of the year 1908 our mother was married to John Balzer. In 1913 our parents, John Balzers, and Abraham Reimers had the rare privilege to visit the Aaron Reimer family who were still living in Russia. Since this visit preceded World War I they saw the old country before it was ruined by war, revolution and famine.

Generations come and generations go. May our names, the names of all our families, be recorded in heaven in the Book of Life.

Henry J. Reimer

Reunions

Reunions come, reunions go,
And what rich blessings from it flow!
We meet our friends and wish them well,
Shall we meet again? No one can tell,
Loved ones have gone on before,
Who knows how soon there'll be some more.
We think of those that are away
And those who can't be here to-day.
We feel as if we should say
"We face this world alone today."

Yet--life with all it's cares and doubts,
All the dangers round about,
All its hardships and its griefs,
And the many strange beliefs
Still has many joys to give,
If only a Christian life we live.
Yes, do the things we know are right
Though we may win or lose the fight.
Take the loss in gold or fame
Not in self-respect or shame.
Be a friend to child and man
Help and give when'ere we can.

Some day, but when, I cannot tell
We here on earth no more shall dwell
No more reunions here shall be
In Heaven each other we will see
So let our conscience be our guide
And in religion take our pride.
Our reunions are signs of love
Which is sent from Heaven above.
And some day we'll all go "Home"
For the Heavenly Reunion all our own.

for the Reimer Reunion in 1947

Dear Relatives,

(Family history read by A. W. Reimer at the family reunion held at Moundridge, Kansas, on the 31st of July, 1927)

Since we are gathered for a family reunion today, it seemed proper that one should learn something about ones ancestors, namely, where they lived, their names, and how they came to this country. I was given the responsibility to record this information. If someone is of the impression that our forefathers have always lived here in America, it may be interesting to know that this is not the case. To add interest to the story I shall go back in our history quite far and name the ancestors on mother's side of the family first. Our great-grandfather Johann Warkentin was born May 15, 1760, in West Prussia in Dorf-Klein--Mausdorf. Our great grandmother, nee Tissen, was born 1767 in the same village. They lived here for a while and later moved to Elbing. They were among the first people to emigrate to South Russia in 1804 and settle in the colony of Molotchna. Great-grandfather took over two lots in the village of Blumenort, which amounted to about 320 acres each. However, because of crop failures, cattle plague, and other misfortunes in their farm program, he gave up farming and took up teaching. This profession he followed in the village of Ladekopp where he died in 1825. In his later years our great-grandfather wrote a song in which he pictures the thorny path our forefathers had to take and the longing in their hearts for their heavenly home above. Grandfather's name was also Johann Warkentin, born November 28, 1786. Grandmother, nee Neufeldt, was born on October 7, 1788. Though the exact birth place is unknown to me, I know that she was also born in Prussia. The grandparents Warkentin lived in Prangenau near the Molotchna where grandfather Warkentin died in 1839 at the age of 52. Grandmother died in 1850 at the age of 62 years. Where they lived after grandfather's death is unknown to me. One could relate more about the relatives of grandfather Warkentin but let this suffice for the present. Grandparents on father's side are: Grandfather Aaron Reimer, born November 14, 1775. Grandmother Reimer, nee Grave, born in 1774 also in Prussia although I do not know the village. In the year 1833 grandmother Reimer died at the age of 58 years. (In 1849 grandfather Reimer died at the age of 73.) He had settled in Furstenwerder. After grandmother's death my parents Aaron Reimers took over grandfather's farm.

Father Aaron Reimer was born January 17, 1814. Mother, nee Anna Warkentin, was born December 31, 1818. To this union 13 children were born of whom 4 died in childhood. God blessed their work and their farm prospered. Father Aaron Reimer died of typhoid fever in the fall of 1874. Mother continued to manage the farm till 1876. Then she sold everything. Since a law requiring military service of the Mennonites was passed in Russia in 1873, many decided to leave Russia and emigrate to America. During the years of 1874 and 1875 many left for America, and in 1876 our mother with her 3 sons also decided to leave for America. Sister Katherina with her husband, John Lowen, whom she had married the previous winter, also joined them. Daughter Elizabeth, married to Jacob Schmidt, had left in 1875. This was a difficult decision for mother to execute because 5 children left for America, while 4 remained in Russia. It was a difficult period for mother, first because she had to bid farewell to the children remaining in Russia, and secondly because of the hardships she had to endure in the early years in this new country. She bore this bravely for us, for which we should be deeply grateful. Mother died on January 2, 1891, at the age of 72. May she rest in peace!

Now follows a short report of her children and their families. Anna, who married Martin Janzen, lived in Alexanderwohl, then moved to Turkestan in the early 80's, where she died in 1884. The children, as far as I know, are all in Turkestan except Elizabeth who married Heinrich Koop, and one grandson of Martin Janzen, Cornelius A. Janzen, who lives in British Columbia, Canada.

After her husband's death she married Jacob Pauls of Corn, Oklahoma. Aaron Reimer, married to Katharina Enns, remained in Russia. He passed away during the war and his wife died some years later. Their children all remained in Russia till after the war. At present three of them are living in Alberta, Canada--Anna, married to Abraham Willems; Maria, married to H. Goertzen, and Jacob Reimer. Aaron Reimers are living in Mexico. Four children are still living in Russia. Katharina, the oldest is still single. Klaas Reimer and his family, Agatha, married to Jacob Willems, and Gerhard Reimer, also married, still reside in Russia.

Maria married Peter Dyck who died in 1887. Later, she married Abraham Reimer. Their children all live here. Maria married Abraham Klassen, Anna married Jacob Klassen, Katharina married Fred Riesen, Elizabeth married Henry Voth and Peter married Maria Schmidt.

Elizabeth, married to Jacob Schmidt, died in the spring of 1887. Their son, Jacob Schmidt, lives in Thomas County, Kansas. Elizabeth, married to Johann Unruh lives here. Father Schmidt has passed away some years ago.

Margaretha married Daniel Knorad, a widower. She died in November of 1876, leaving two sons, Aaron Konrad who has passed on, and Abraham Konrad who, with his family, still lives near the Kuban in Russia.

Katharina, married to John Lowen, moved with her family to Manitoba, Canada, where Lowen has died, but she still resides there with her two daughters. Katie is married to David Dalke and Maria to Abraham Duerksen.

Brother Johann married Aganetha Boese. He died in 1898 at the age of 42. His family lives here. Aaron, married to Tina Bartel, and Katie, married to Johann Frantz, are residing in Oklahoma. Anna, married to Peter Quiring; Aganetha, married to Peter Frey; Heinrich, married to Susie Loewen; Will, married to Lena Janzen; Maria, married to Peter Dyck, all have families.

A. W. Reimer married Maria Schroeder. Their children all live here. Abraham is married to Katie Buller, Heinrich is married to Agatha Unrau, Johann is married to Justina Enz, Maria is married to Jacob Loewen. Gustav and Bernhard are not married. Aaron married Laura Ewert and is living in Denver, Colorado.

Simon Reimer, married to Anna Siemens, lives in Buhler, Kansas, with his family. Adolf is married to Lena Adrian, Johann is married to Liese Willems, while Cornelius and Katharina are not yet married.

We see here that of the 9 members of the Reimer family three are still living; namely, Mrs. John Lowen, Simon Reimer and I. We see that our Heavenly Father has also led our family. We entrust ourselves to His guidance knowing that in His care all will be well.
